Course Description

This course is an introduction to some important issues in the philosophical domains of epistemology, metaphysics, and the philosophy of religion. In particular, we will examine philosophical discussions about the nature and scope of human knowledge, how the mental relates to the physical, the possibility of free will, and whether it is possible to reconcile the existence of an all-good, all-powerful God with the apparent existence of evil and suffering.

Required Text

Course packet, available at Bound & Copied.

Evaluation

- Two papers, the first 3-5 pages long (worth 20%), due March 7th, the second 4-6 pages long (worth 25%), due the last day of class (April 16th).
- A take-home midterm exam (worth 20%), due February 26th.
- A Registrar-scheduled final exam (worth 25%).
- Tutorial performance (worth 10%).

Writing and the grading thereof is a factor in the evaluation of your work for this course. For further explanation, see the UC Calendar at http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/e-2.html. No assignment is such that a passing grade on it is required to pass the course.

Grading Method

Letter Grades translate to numerical values according to the following scheme:

| A+: 98.33 | B+: 88.33 | C+: 78.33 | D+: 68.33 | F: 55 |
|-------------|-------------|-------------|-------------|-------|
| A+/A: 96.67 | B+/B: 86.67 | C+/C: 76.67 | D+/D: 66.67 | |
| A: 95 | B: 85 | C: 75 | D: 65 | |
| A/A-: 93.33 | B/B-: 83.33 | C/C-: 73.33 | D/D-: 63.33 | |
| A-: 91.67 | B-: 81.67 | C-: 71.67 | D-: 61.67 | |
| A-/B+: 90 | B-/C+: 80 | C-/D+: 70 | | |

Final Grades are computed by rounding to the nearest recognized letter grade.

Policy on Late Assignments

You can get an extension on one and only one take-home assignment. You can take this extension for any reason at all. But you must clear it with me at least a day in advance of the due date and, again, you only get one. So save it for when you really need it. All unexcused late assignments will lose the equivalent of 1/3 full letter grade for each day the assignment is late, to a maximum of the equivalent of 4 full letter grades. Missing assignments receive a zero. Late midterm exams will not be accepted one week after the official due date.

INTELLECTUAL HONESTY

Intellectual honesty is the cornerstone of the development and acquisition of knowledge and requires that the contribution of others be acknowledged. As a result, cheating or plagiarism on any assignment or examination is regarded as an extremely serious academic offence, the penalty for which may be an F on the assignment and possibly also an F in the course, academic probation, or requirement to withdraw. The University Calendar states that plagiarism exists when:

- the work submitted or presented was done, in whole or in part, by an individual other than the one submitting or presenting the work (this includes having another impersonate the student or otherwise substituting the work of another for one's own in an examination or test;
- parts of the work are taken from another source without reference to the original author;
- the whole work (e.g., an essay) is copied from another source; and/or
- a student submits or presents work in one course which has also been submitted in another course (although it may be completely original with that student) without the knowledge of or prior agreement of the instructor involved.

While it is recognized that scholarly work often involves reference to the ideas, data and conclusions of other scholars, intellectual honesty requires that such references be explicitly and clearly noted. Plagiarism occurs not only when direct quotations are taken from a source without specific acknowledgement, but also when original ideas or data from the source are not acknowledged. A bibliography is insufficient to establish which portions of the student's work are taken from external sources; footnotes or other recognized forms of citation must be used for this purpose.

ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATION

It is the student's responsibility to request academic accommodation. If you are a student with a documented disability who may require academic accommodation and have not registered with the Disability Resource Centre, contact their office at 220-8237. Students who have not registered with the Disability Resource Centre are not eligible for formal academic accommodation. You are also required to discuss your needs with your instructor no later than fourteen (14) days after the start of this course.
