Course Description

This course is an introduction to moral philosophy. There are different sorts of moral appraisal. Some concern the evaluation of actions; for example, what makes right acts right? Others concern the evaluation of character. When is a person virtuous? Yet others concern the evaluation of persons. Under what conditions, for instance, is a person blameworthy for something? Still others concern the assessment of lives. When is a life good in itself for a person? We will examine moral theories of each of these types of appraisal.
