Lectures: The course will be run asynchronously. A recording of each lecture will be accessible on D2L throughout the semester.

Prerequisites:

There are no prerequisites for this course.

Course description:

The course examines a variety of moral problems facing contemporary society. Topics to be discussed include sexual ethics, pornography, abortion, world poverty, capital punishment, physician-assisted death, performance-enhancing drugs, animal rights, and environmental responsibility.

Course Objectives:

- Broad knowledge of diverse philosophical issues, problems, traditions, and views in applied ethics;
- Ability to critically digest, interpret, and analyze complex sources;
- Ability to write a convincing argument that takes adequate account of alternative positions;
- Ability to engage in constructive, respectful, oral and written argumentation.

Texts:

- 1) Readings will be made available through Library e-journals and will be posted on D2L (respectful of copyright).

Course Assessment:

There are five discussion board posts, two exams and a term paper. The exams are not timed, students will be given 72 hours to write each exam. The paper will be on assigned topics from the readings. Writing and the grading thereof is a factor in the evaluation of your work for this course. For further explanation, see the University Calendar at <http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/e-2.html>. There will NOT be a Registrar-scheduled final exam.

Weight	Assignment	Due dates
30%	Discussion Board	Weekly, starting July 5th
20%	Exam 1	July 15 th - 18 th
20%	Exam 2	August 5 th - 8 th
30%	Paper	August 11 th

Assignments are to be submitted on D2L. Late work will be penalized 3.3 points per day (the equivalent to one letter-grade step) unless there is a documented excuse such as illness or family emergency. A passing grade on any particular component of the course is not required for a pass in the course as a whole.

Weekly Discussion Board Posts (5 x 6% = 30%)

Each week students will be given a discussion question related to the weekly topic and will be required to write a brief commentary, as well as provide a response to the post of another student. Comments must be a minimum of 250 words, and responses must be a minimum 100 words. Your original post will count for 80% of your grade each weekly discussion board assignment and your response post will account for the remaining 20%.

Exams (20% each)

The exams will be made available on Thursday, July 15th and Thursday, August 5th, respectively. Students will be given 72 hours to complete the exam and submit it on D2L. Exams will consist of essay-style questions.

Paper (30%)

Paper topics will be given well in advance of the due date. Papers are to be approximately 1500 words. Your paper must be grammatically correct, with correct punctuation and spelling. Publication information must be provided for any source you use, in any commonly used format you prefer.

Letter grades reflect the following standards, as outlined in the UCalgary Academic Calendar:

- A: Excellent—superior performance, showing comprehensive understanding of subject matter.
- B: Good — clearly above average performance with knowledge of subject matter generally complete.
- C: Satisfactory — basic understanding of the subject matter.
- D: Minimal pass — marginal performance; generally insufficient preparation for subsequent courses in the same subject.
- F: Fail — unsatisfactory performance or failure to meet course requirements.

The quality of writing will be a component in grading.

Grading scale:

A+	97-100	A	93-96	A-	90-92
B+	87-89	B	83-86	B-	80-82
C+	77-79	C	73-76	C-	70-72

Recognized Holidays: July 1st and August 2nd
Last day to Withdraw: August 11th
End of Classes: August 11th
Final Exam Period: August 13th to 17th

IMPORTANT DEPARTMENTAL, FACULTY AND UNIVERSITY INFORMATIONAcademic Accommodations

It is the student's responsibility to request academic accommodations according to the University policies and procedures. The student accommodation policy can be found at ucalgary.ca/legal-services/sites/default/files/teams/1/Policies-Student-Accommodation-Policy.pdf.

Students needing an Accommodation because of a disability or medical condition should communicate this need to Student Accessibility Services in accordance with the Procedure for Accommodations for Students with Disabilities: ucalgary.ca/legal-services/sites/default/files/teams/1/Policies-Accommodation-for-Students-with-Disabilities-Procedure.pdf. Students needing an Accommodation in relation to their coursework or to fulfil requirements for a graduate degree, based on a protected ground other than disability, should communicate this need, preferably in writing, to their instructor.

Absence or Missed Course Assessments

Students who are absent from class assessments (tests, participation activities, or other assignments) should inform their instructors as soon as possible. If the reason provided for the absence is acceptable, instructors may decide that any arrangements made can take forms other than make-up tests or assignments. For example, the weight of a missed grade may be added to another assignment or test.

Academic Advising

If you are a student in the Faculty of Arts, you can speak to an academic advisor in the Arts Students' Centre about course planning, course selection, registration, program progression and more. Visit the Faculty of Arts website at <https://arts.ucalgary.ca/current-students/undergraduate/academic-advising> for contact details and information regarding common academic concerns.

For questions specific to the philosophy program, please visit arts.ucalgary.ca/philosophy. Further academic guidance is available by contacting Jeremy Fantl (Undergraduate Program Director jfantl@ucalgary.ca) or David Dick (Honours Advisor dgdick@ucalgary.ca). If you have questions regarding registration, please email Courtenay Canivet (Undergraduate Program Administrator phildept@ucalgary.ca)

Writing Assessment and Support

The assessment of all written assignments—and, to a lesser extent, written exam responses—is based in part on writing skills. This includes correctness (grammar, punctuation, sentence structure, etc.), as well as general clarity and organization. Research papers must include a thorough and accurate citation of sources. Students are also encouraged to use Writing Support Services for assistance. For more information, and other services offered by the Student Success Centre, please visit ucalgary.ca/student-services/student-success.

Required Technology

In order to successfully engage in their learning experiences at the University of Calgary, students taking online, remote, and blended courses are required to have reliable access to the following technology:

- A computer with a supported operating system, as well as the latest security, and malware updates;
- A current and updated web browser;
- Webcam (built-in or external);
- Microphone and speaker (built-in or external), or headset with microphone;
- Current antivirus and/or firewall software enabled;
- Broadband internet connection.

Most current laptops will have a built-in webcam, speaker and microphone.

Responsible Use of D2L

Important information and communication about this course will be posted on D2L (Desire2Learn), UCalgary's online learning management system. Visit <https://ucalgary.service-now.com/it> for how-to information and technical assistance.

All users of D2L are bound by the guidelines on the responsible use of D2L posted here: <https://elearn.ucalgary.ca/commitment-to-the-responsible-use-of-d2l/>.
