COURSE INFORMATION:
One traditional strain in epistemology has it that certain details of your context are irrelevant to what you or I know and what you or I should believe. What matters in epistemology (according to this strain) is evidence and evidence only. It doesn’t matter what is important to you, what sort of inquiry you’re engaged in, what you happen to be thinking about, who you’re friends with, what commitments you’ve made, or what is morally important. The standards for knowledge in philosophy classrooms are the same as the standards for knowledge when bird-watching in Kananaskis Country, when casually watching t.v., or as the member of a jury in a courtroom. We will explore various ways that, contrary to this position, those aspects of context can affect epistemological claims, as well as responses on behalf of the traditional strain. In particular, we will look at how and whether your practical stakes, your friendships, the moral consequences of your beliefs, and your promises or other commitments might affect your claims to knowledge and justified belief.

COURSE OBJECTIVES/LEARNING OUTCOMES
This course will provide the opportunity to learn
- the outlines of current debate on the epistemological consequences of the internet.
- how to write an extended argumentative paper that takes adequate account of the other side
- how to develop a paper through a draft stage into polished form
- how to take constructive feedback on written work presented in a public setting
- how to engage in respectful dialogue with peers with whom you disagree
- how to present a project in a professional way in an interview setting

REQUIRED/RECOMMENDED TEXTBOOKS, READINGS AND MATERIALS
Various philosophical articles, as indicated on the syllabus, below, available via public links or links through the University of Calgary library. Links are listed on D2L.
COURSE WORK AND ASSESSMENT

- 4 précis (worth 30%) – detailed analyses of single arguments or passages in the assigned reading – of 1 (single-spaced) page max. Précis must be uploaded to D2L by the beginning of the class devoted to the relevant reading and you may hand in no more than one per week. Missing précis receive a zero. If it’s clear you spent two minutes on it, the précis gets a C. Otherwise, all précis get an A.

- A 20 minute, completely stress-free oral midterm exam (worth 30%) outside of class. Your exam will be held via Zoom during the week beginning October 19th, at a mutually agreed upon time.

- A final term paper (worth 40%) of 10-15 pages. All term papers are preceded by a rough draft to be workshopped publicly in class. Drafts are due Thursday, November 12th. Final papers are due December 10th. Late papers are marked down 1/3 of a grade for each day late, up to 4 letter grades. Papers not turned in receive a zero. Late drafts reduce the grade of the final paper by 1/3 of a grade for each day late, but are themselves ungraded.

Policy on Late Assignments

You get a no-questions-asked extension on one and only one take-home assignment, as long as you clear it with me at least a day in advance of the due date. All unexcused late assignments lose the equivalent of 1/3 full letter grade for each day the assignment is late, to a maximum of the equivalent of 4 full letter grades. Missing assignments receive a zero.

Letter Grades translate to numerical values according to the following scheme. Final Grades are computed by rounding to the nearest recognized letter grade.

| A+: 98.33 | B+: 88.33 | C+: 78.33 | D+: 68.33 | F: 55 |
| A+/A: 96.67 | B+/B: 86.67 | C+/C: 76.67 | D+/D: 66.67 |
| A: 95 | B: 85 | C: 75 | D: 65 |
| A/-A: 93.33 | B/-B: 83.33 | C/-C: 73.33 | D/-D: 63.33 |
| A: 91.67 | B: 81.67 | C: 71.67 | D: 61.67 |

IMPORTANT DEPARTMENTAL, FACULTY AND UNIVERSITY INFORMATION

Academic Accommodations
It is the student’s responsibility to request academic accommodations according to the University policies and procedures. The student accommodation policy can be found at ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-accommodation-policy.pdf.

Students needing an Accommodation because of a disability or medical condition should communicate this need to Student Accessibility Services in accordance with the Procedure for Accommodations for Students with Disabilities: ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/procedure-for-accommodations-for-students-with-disabilities.pdf. Students needing an Accommodation in relation to their coursework or to fulfil requirements for a graduate degree, based on a protected ground other than disability, should communicate this need, preferably in writing, to their instructor.

Absence or Missed Course Assessments
Students who are absent from class assessments (tests, participation activities, or other assignments) should inform their instructors as soon as possible. If the reason provided for the absence is acceptable, instructors may decide that any arrangements made can take forms other than make-up tests or assignments. For example, the weight of a missed grade may be added to another assignment or test.
