Friday, September 25, 4 pm  SS 1253
  JENNIFER WELCHMAN (Alberta)
  Could Hume be the Social Progressive’s Moral Theorist?

Tuesday, October 13, 2 pm  ST 127
  SAUL KRIPKE (Princeton/CUNY)
  The Structure of Possible Worlds: Some Considerations

Wednesday, October 14, 4 pm  ST 145
  SAUL KRIPKE (Princeton/CUNY)
  The Trouble with the Hilbert Program

Friday, October 23, 4 pm  SS 1253
  MICHAEL SMITH (Princeton)
  Beyond Belief and Desire; Or, How to be Orthonomous

Friday, November 6, 4 pm  SS 1253
  JONATHAN WEINBERG (Indiana)
  Humans as Instruments: The Inevitability of Experimental Philosophy

Saturday, November 7, 1 pm  SS 1253
  ERNEST SOSA (Rutgers)
  Armchair Philosophy

Saturday, November 7, 4 pm  SS 1253
  JANET LEVIN (Southern California)
  Epistemology and Empirical Investigation

Friday, November 20, 4 pm  SS 1253
  DAVID BRINK (California at San Diego)
  Responsibility as Fairness
  Sponsored by the Chair in Business Ethics

Friday, December 4, 4pm  SS 1253
  TRAVIS DUMSDAY (Calgary)
  The Problem of Complex Essences

Friday, December 11, 4 pm  SS 1253
  MASASHI KASAKI (Calgary)
  Gettier Case Lotterized: The Barn Case is a Lottery Case